Located on the banks of the North Umpqua, John P. Amacher is at the crossroads of multiple recreational opportunities. It offers camping, day use, a boat ramp, hiking through a Myrtlewood grove, all at the border of Winchester and Roseburg.

Year-round Camping located on the banks of the North Umpqua in the center of it all, Amacher provides a good base camp for exploring central Douglas County (Vehicle height restriction of 12 feet 9 inches).

- (18) 30 amp full hook up sites
- (2) 30 amp / water sites
- (10) non-hook up sites
- Camping exclusive restroom and showers

North Umpqua River provides great fishing access and is a popular summer floating put in site. The ODFW fish observation site is located a few hundred feet upstream if you want to see the salmon up close.

- Boat Ramp for fishing & floating
- River access parking & restroom
- Swimming

Day Use Areas offer access to the river, a reservable gazebo or a nature trail through a Myrtlewood Grove.

- Gazebo (maximum 50 people)
- Myrtlewood Grove
- Nature Trail

There is a Parking Fee for Day Use Areas

Douglas County Parks

Douglas County Parks began in 1950 and was the first County Park system in Oregon. The Park system now encompasses 69 properties, including 23 boat ramps, 9 campgrounds and 42 day use parks from the Pacific Ocean to the Cascades and throughout the 100 Valleys of the Umpqua.

Adventure Awaits

Douglas County Parks are your gateway to adventure. Whether you like world class fishing, access to vineyards and 57 varieties of grapes, riding the Winchester Bay ODNRA dunes on your OHV, taking a float on Umpqua, or just engaging with nature... Douglas County Parks has it or provides you access to these great natural wonders and recreation destinations.

Self-Sufficient

Douglas County Parks are self-sufficient. That means that we do not receive any county tax revenue to operate our parks. We are reliant on patrons like you to help us manage and maintain the parks. Thank you for your patronage and your help in keeping the Parks looking good.

Thanks & Enjoy Douglas County Parks!!!

$4 Parking Fee or $30 12-month Parking Permit